Hi Michael

We just realized today that we never received this tax notice in the mail. It was being sent to our owners home. After speaking with him, he indicated they had a rash of mailbox thefts in his neighborhood so its very likely this is why we never received it. We have paid the $21,766.91 today online. We have always paid on time in the past. Is it possible to have the interest waived as a one time forgiveness? We would greatly appreciate if you could take this into consideration. Thank you.
