

2022 Municipal Law Seminars

In an effort to keep our attendees and our team safe we have made the difficult decision to shift our Municipal Law Seminars to a virtual format due to the rapidly growing number of COVID-19 cases as a result of the Omicron variant.

While we were hoping that postponing would allow us to gather safely, we were made aware of a number of unforeseeable scheduling conflicts that have driven our ultimate decision to host these events virtually.

We would like to thank everyone for bearing with us while we make this change. We truly value our clients and want to offer you the very best programming we can.

Please note that by registering, you have access to all session recordings on-demand after the date. This will allow you to view at your leisure if you cannot accommodate a full-day virtual session. You may also register for any of the three dates, regardless of your location.

We want to genuinely thank everyone for continuing to attend our Municipal Law Seminars that we look forward to every year in order to connect with you and bring you relevant topics and discussions. We had hoped to see old faces and many new ones at this year's events but for now, we will have to settle for (hopefully just one more) virtual setting.

The agenda boasts a lineup of timely topics focused on the legal landscape and how it relates to municipalities in Alberta. Topics you can expect to see include:

- Dealing with difficult ratepayers
- Provincial and municipal roles in Planning & Development
- Municipal Liability
- Challenges to Council Decisions
- Recent developments in Construction Project Delivery Models
- Employment law catch-up
- Bill 77 and linear taxes
- Property assessment and taxation

Each seminar will conclude with a bear-pit style session where you will have the opportunity to ask questions from our legal panel on issues facing your municipality.

Visit the registration links above for details on topics at each seminar and to register.
